

Temporary Closure of REC Baltimore

On April 27, 2015, a civil State of Emergency was declared by the Governor of Maryland.

As a result, the Regional Examination Center (REC) in Baltimore, MD, will be closed as of April 28, 2015, and will reopen on the following business day after this Executive Order is lifted.

During the temporary closure, applications may be submitted to one of the other RECs. Please see the NMC Website for a complete list of REC locations. If you have all ready submitted your application then it will be process by another REC.

If you have questions, please contact the NMC at 1-888-IASKNMC (1-888-427-5662) or IASKNMC@uscg.mil.

Sincerely,

/J. P. Novotny/

Jeffrey P. Novotny

Captain, U.S. Coast Guard

Commanding Officer